⊘ Please turn off cell phones when in the building on Shabbat.

Note to parents: We are delighted to have children at our services and in the sanctuary! They are our future. Our new building includes a Quiet Room connected to the back of the sanctuary. You may see and hear services from the Quiet Room whenever you might prefer.

What Shabbat Does for Us

“Those who delight in Shabbat” add to their lives
A heritage of “Joy and spiritual distinction.”
Shabbat helps us to liberate ourselves
From the tyranny of the clock,
From enslavement to things.
Shabbat provides us with a weekly exodus
From the world of strain, struggle, and strife.
Shabbat summons us to worship and reflect,
To renew our dreams, to rekindle our hopes.
Shabbat drapes us with dignity and honor,
For we are each created in the Divine image.
Shabbat helps us to remember
That we are partners with God in the work of creation.
Shabbat strengthens us for the challenge
To overcome weariness, to resist despair.
Shabbat beckons us to a sense of the holy,
To an awareness of the sacred dimensions of life.
And so we offer our gratitude to God,
Who gave us the Shabbat, the most precious of days.
